BOSTON STORE ENTERED—ABOUT $98 IN CASH STOLEN.

Evident Work of Barefoot Boy Burglars No Loss to Proprietor H. C. Murray.

The Boston store, owned by H. C. Murray, was entered some time Thursday night, and as a result $98 in bills and change was missing when the store was opened for business Friday morning. All indications go to show that the theft was the work of small boys, and that the barefoot boys who were found when an investigation was made. Whoever made the break managed to squeeze through the small opening between the Murray block and a building in the rear and gain entrance to the store through a rear window. On Friday a stick was found leaning against the building under the window and it is thought that this was used to enable the boys or boy to reach up and go through the window.

Although there are a number of cash registers in the store, only a few of them, which were not covered, had been opened and their contents stolen. The money taken had been left in the registers in order that there would be change with which to start business the next morning.

It was found that there was no stock of any description missing. There will be no loss to Mr. Murray, as the store is covered by insurance against robbery.

WILLIAM ADAMS INJURED.

Dragged by Frightened Horse, Skull Being Fractured.

Friday noon William Adams, employed by F. B. Willoughby of Scotland, met with an accident that may prove fatal. Adams, who was returning to the home with Mr. Willoughby, attempted to mount a horse after he had placed the bars of the gate in position. Adams fell from the horse, getting his foot caught in the harness. At this time the horse became frightened and started to run, dragging Adams for some distance before he was released. Mr. Willoughby ran to the injured man, whom he found unconscious and bleeding from wounds about the head and body. Dr. Guild of Windham was called and found Adams suffering from a fractured skull and other injuries. Dr. Guild ordered him removed to St. Joseph's hospital.

It is also expected that Norwich lodge will be represented by about 15 Elks from that locality. All about 300 Elks are expected to eat of the big bake and participate in the sports that will be held.

Thread Co. Team vs. Taftville Today. At Recreation park this afternoon the American Thread company team meets the fast Taftville team. Both teams are very evenly matched, a closely fought game is looked for by both managers. The local boys are confident of coming out on top, as they have in most of the games they have entered this season. In all probability Adams will do the pitching and Anderson will receive for the local team.

WILLIMANTIC CAMP GROUND

Speakers and Events During Institute Friday—Dr. Helms

Considers the Vagrant—Bishop Hamilton Speaks On the Chosen People—Annual Camp Fire—Daughter of Moosup Pastor Baptized.

Another new speaker was on the platform at the second period, Friday, Edgar J. Helms, for many years successful superintendent of the Morgan Memorial Institutional church in Boston. His theme is Social Betterment. Some say that his aim is to make the world better by woman suffrage, prohibition, eugenics, old worn laws repealed and new laws made. Others say education will bring in the millennium. All these are most excellent and necessary, and we are glad they are in the air, and more and more becoming reality. Yet without the salvation of the Lord Jesus Christ all will fail, as has been often proved.

Epworth League Bible Study. Dr. Spaulding had both the first and fourth periods, giving his usual address in the fourth department of the league first, and giving an interesting and helpful account in the last hour of the special Epworth League course of Bible study. At the same hour Mr. Nafziger had a young men's class in Applied Religion in the South Manchester house.

Children's Meeting.

At the usual gathering of the children at 1 p. m. in the New London house the speakers were Miss Florence Thatcher and Miss Marenia Trentles. At the same hour in the Stafford Springs house a spirited conference meeting was held under the leadership of Rev. J. R. Miller of West Thompson.

Afternoon Exercises.

It had grown quite warm by noon and the breeze that blew beneath the roof of the auditorium was very grateful to the audience assembled to hear Dr. Edgar J. Helms of Boston.

Choirmaster Nafziger conducted the customary praise service, providing the address. Prayer was offered by Rev. E. J. Curry of Westerly, after the Scripture reading by Rev. E. A. Legg of East Greenwich.

the speaker said was a bigger problem than usually considered. If they were not removed from the country, the five hundred thousand tramps and idlers would bring in three hundred million dollars to the country, 2,500,000 men are starving because of this vagrant class. Now these vagrants cost the country some two hundred millions of dollars. The Son of Man came to seek and save that which was lost. Where do the hoboes come from? At Suffolk county jail I find as chaplains many boys just out of the grammar grade.

He advocated vocational schools for boys between 12 and 14, two young to enter the labor army, as our law now is. At the same time the juvenile delinquents lower by compelling them to associate with criminals and degenerates in our jails and prisons. The former are to be saved by the church and the state, working peacefully and earnestly can save them. In Switzerland there are 100,000 vagrants. They are being put in various grades into perfect self-control. The work to which men are made to do in our state prisons during the summer. Instead of teaching them self respect, and a good trade. The church should join with the state in ministering to their souls.

Consecration Service. An impressive consecration service was held in the tabernacle last evening under the leadership of Miss Alice Robertson.

Tennis Tournaments. Single and double tournament contests have been on during the week. The contest of men's doubles was won by the doubles of East Hampton and Harold Jeffers of Jewett City, 6-3, 6-3, over Rev. J. E. Priestly, of Wapping, and Rev. H. A. Cassidy of East Greenwich.

Notes. J. Guy Ayer of Preston came Friday to assist at Zabriske's restaurant the last three days of the meeting.

Rev. E. A. Legg of Danielson and E. J. Curry of Westerly, came to the grounds Friday for the balance of the meetings.

Rev. Walter E. Langham of the Connecticut Temperance Union, who is spending the summer at Chippewa, was motorized to the grounds, almost daily, Friday he brought Mrs. Langham and the day before his mother, Mrs. Nancy Langham, and Miss Sarah Layton came with him. Rev. J. H. Geisler in Railroad Accident.

A number of friends of Rev. J. H. Geisler, of East Hampton, were called at his cottage on Prospect avenue Friday to see how he fared in the railroad accident at Amston on Thursday evening. He had been home to attend a funeral, and was returning to Willimantic. At what was formerly Turnerville, where a branch line starts for Colchester, the train which was going at a rapid rate ran into a train which was stopped, and collided with a standing freight train. Mr. Geisler, who was in the front seat of the car behind the baggage car and was thrown against the side corner seat and badly bruised his knee. Harlan Hill of East Hampton, who was in the same train and his neck was considerably strained by the jolt. A lawyer has already appeared to settle claims.

Annual Camp Fire. Dog-roast, coffee, rolls, readings, stunts and a bang-up good time was enjoyed at the annual institute campfire, held Friday night. After Bishop Hamilton's sermon, on the field to the southeast of the grounds. O. H. Moore had charge of the stunts, readings were given by Rev. J. E. Priestly of Wapping and Miss Laura Brownell, who resides on the camp grounds. Humorous stories were told by Bishop Hamilton, Dr. Spaulding and the Revs. Otis H. Moore and H. A. Cassidy.

Reverend Hamilton's Sermon. Thursday evening the sermon was preached by Bishop John W. Hamilton. After a praise service conducted by Leader Nafziger, prayer was offered by Rev. F. W. Coleman of Norwich.

Bishop Hamilton's text was, Salvation is of the Jews. It suggests that God has chosen that salvation should be from one man to another, that privileged classes must save the unprivileged, and that there is no other salvation than that from the Jews. He spoke of the unconscious influence of old people. Privileges means obligation and responsibility. Even a little child has a great influence. God has a great purpose in keeping the Jews distinct from all other nations. Christ was a Jew. We ought to be as polite to Him as we are to one another. Salvation is from no other than from Jesus.

He closed with the story of the conversion of Captain MacDonald at the time when the annual conference was held in New London in 1904. The bishop concluded with a fervent petition for soul winning power. After a hymn he pronounced the benediction.

Personals and Briefs.

Rev. Frank Nye, pastor of the Howland Valley Baptist church in Hampton, is here for a two days' visit.

Owen S. Smith of Norwich Town, his son, Rev. Edward H. and the latter's wife, came up for the day Friday. Rev. and Mrs. Smith have been engaged in mission work in China for the last fifteen years, and this is their second furlough. Mrs. Smith is the daughter of Rev. J. Thomas, an honored retired minister of the New England Southern Conference, and a former pastor at Norwich Town. Mr. Thomas' health is reported better than formerly.

Mr. William H. Gordon was up from Norwich for the day yesterday.

Mr. and Mrs. Joyce H. Bailey, with Mr. and Mrs. Cheney, all from Milford, on their return from an automobile trip to New Bedford and Cape Cod, stopped at the grounds Friday to see John W. Rose.

At the Moosup home on Church circle, Thursday afternoon, Ida Berntha, the 12 weeks old daughter of Rev. and Mrs. Arthur H. Withe, was baptized by Bishop J. W. Hamilton. Quite a company of Moosup people most witnessed this beautiful ceremony of the baptism of their pastor's daughter.

Judge Albert E. Purple of Moosup motored to the grounds yesterday. He was accompanied by Arthur Gillman, Charles Emily, Hans Liebig and Walter Bedewitz. The latter is to stop until Sunday. The others returned late in the afternoon.

A young man of 23 was noticed stopping hastily at the grounds Friday day—Jephtha Hill, of Griswold, who bears his weight of years lightly.

Rev. Frank Chamberlain of East Thompson, led the meeting at the Stafford Springs cottage Friday evening at 6 o'clock.

PLAINFIELD

Series of Games With Moosup Called Off—Football Club Organizes for Season—Series With Goodyear Team—Bowling Green Players for Today's Contest.

Manager Morrisette of the Plainfield baseball team announced that the series between Moosup and Plainfield had been called off. Manager Amidon of the Moosup team said that it would be impossible to play the remaining games. Of the three scheduled games only one was played and resulted in an easy victory for Plainfield, 9 to 1. The poor showing of the Moosup players and the little enthusiasm shown by Moosup fans are probably the reasons why Manager Amidon cancelled the games.

Football Team's Officers.

The Plainfield football club held an open meeting in the Eden theatre on Friday evening. The meeting was not well attended but there was an enthusiastic gathering and all worked harmoniously.

James McNulty acted as chairman of the meeting and the following officers were elected for the coming season: Chairman of the executive committee, James McNulty; treasurer, Charles Alexander; secretary, Frederick Lynch. The committee is composed of the following: Zeek Teltow, Albert Horton, Philip Smith, Philip Soule, John Bottomley, Walter Platt, John Taylor, Charles Alexander, Fred Lynch, and James McNulty.

Reynold Potts was chosen captain of the team and Charles Fullmer, vice captain.

Prospects for the coming season were discussed. Plainfield has a series of five games scheduled with the Goodyear club for the Leo Clegg cup but Plainfield is obliged to concede ten points or goals to the Goodyears and it was decided to call it off under such circumstances.

Bowling Green Players.

The players that will make up the local bowling green club's team in their match with Central Falls today are: James Boyle, James Booth, John Kraslaw, John Bottomley, Albert Hilton, John Seddon, Joseph Walker, John Hargraves, Barrett Judson and Philip Smith.

Wheelmen Continue to Norwich.

Six bicycle riders rode into town Friday night from East Boston. When they reached here last night they had covered 67 miles. They left Norwich where they spent the night.
